1. The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2. Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3. Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4. So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5. And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6. Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,

7. And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8. Then cometh Simon Peter, and went in unto the sepulchre. He seeth the linen clothes lying, and the napkin, which was on his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

9. And the other disciple, which came first unto the sepulchre, went and saw where the Lord was laid, and returned, and told those which came with him.

10. They went therefore, and came into the sepulchre; and saw the linen clothes lying, and an angel sitting upon the right side of the sepulchre, clothed in a white garment; and his countenance was as the countenance of light.

11. And they were afraid, and said, Who is it that speaketh unto us?

12. And one of the disciples, named Thomas, being a Hebrew name, which is called Didymus, came not with them into the sepulchre.

13. Then saith he unto them, Go your way, and tell his disciples, and Peter, that the Son of man goeth unto Jerusalem, and suffereth many things, and is crucified, and rising again the third day.
8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.
